

Elysian Arcs

By Atelier Sisu

Visual Guide

A joyful immersive inflatable installation with light and sound.

What to Expect

How to attend:

Elysian Arcs is free - just show up.

This event is for all ages.

When:

Monday 26th February until Friday 15th March

10am – 8pm Daily

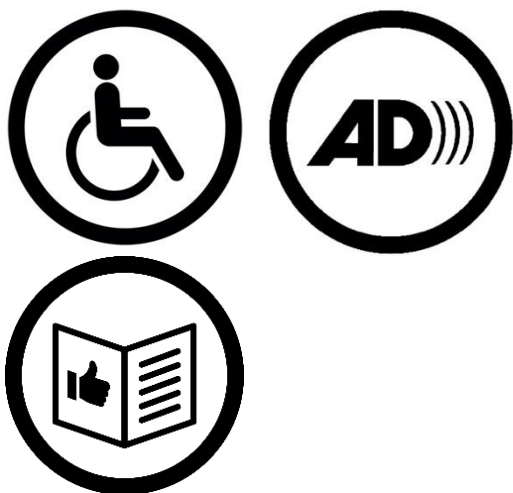

You can arrive and leave at any time.

Where:

The Leadenhall Building
West Events Space
122 Leadenhall Street
London
EC3V 4AB

What3Words ///silk-forest.pump

Access:

Level access on site

Digital Audio Description Introduction available

The experience:

You can move through and around the inflatable arcs and bubbles.

Music and Sound:

Experimental classical music will play on speakers around the installation.

This is a relaxed event.

You can:

- Move around
- Make noise
- Arrive and leave at any time

Lights:

After dark the arcs will be lit up from the inside.

They will change colour gradually.

There will be NO strobe or flashing lights.

About Elysian Arcs

Elysian Arcs are public art.

The artists are called Atelier Sisu.

Atelier Sisu want everyone to see their art in public space.

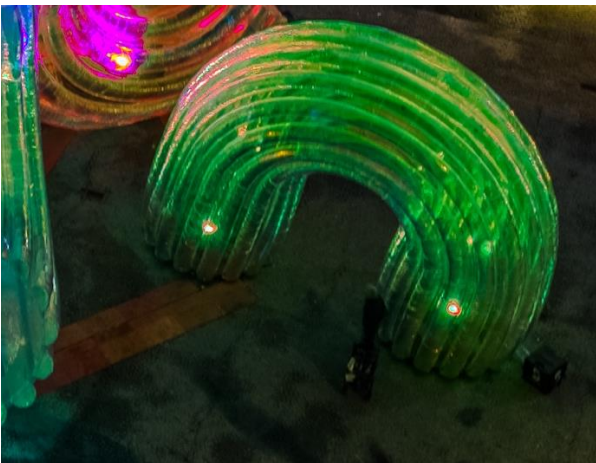

Audience are invited to be curious.

To find joy and wonder in the everyday.

To see the movement of colour and lights.

The arcs and bubbles are inflatable.

They are blown up with air for the event.

Find out more:

Info about the company:

Atelier Sisu is design studio lead by award winning artists Renzo B. Larriviere and Zara Pasfield.

Based in Sydney, Australia

<https://www.ateliersisu.com/>

Contact

Email: access@festival.org